Everyone loves a circus—the lilting tunes of the carrousal, the gay, colorful parade, the slow, lumbering elephants and wild, snarling lions are all a part of that joyous adventure. And who could ever forget the proud, prancing white horses, or the bearded lady, or the daring trapeze artists?

The circus is a symbol—a symbol of all the carefree abandon, the unbridled pleasures of youth. Now in our nation's present state of turmoil, many of these frivolous amusements have been forsaken for more serious pursuits. It will naturally be hard to recapture that former light-heartedness; but just as inevitably as the dashing lion trainer and whimsical clowns will always remain a bright, sunny spot in our memories, so with spring the circus will return again.

ALMA MATER

Sweet be thy memory, High School of ours,
Fair be thy destiny, fadeless thy flowers,
Hearts that have loved thee have won in life's fight,
Names that we honor, thy standard holds bright.

Our Alma Mater dear, to thee we sing,
May all thy future years new honors bring,
May friends thy banners raise, thy foes grow less,
All love and praise to our old E. H. S.

The Land of the Free . . .

Each American's most precious treasure is his personal freedom. It is that liberty which enables him to pick up his evening paper, shout threateningly at the newsboy to "Throw the paper on the porch, not in the bushes," and proceed to read the truth. Every time he attends a public meeting, worships in his own church, or even turns on his radio he is enjoying the privileges of a democracy. If he were asked whether he would be willing to defend these privileges he would undoubtedly answer indignantly, "You bet your life I would!" And yet, unconsciously, all of us often forget that we must be vigilant. Democracy was never bought cheaply. Blood and sweat and tears, lives of loved ones, and years of struggle are the price we have paid and are still paying, for our freedom . . . for our rights.

While Americans speak jealously of their rights, they do not always remember that the best way to safeguard these liberties is to observe just as carefully the duties of a good citizen. The practice of self control, tolerance, fairness, reason, and initiative is the foundation of democracy, and all the victorious battles, all the American lives lost would be to no avail should the citizens of the United States fail to realize this fact. As defenders of the "home front" it is our obligation to the boys facing the guns to perform the duties as well as to enjoy the rights of our democracy.

and the Home of the Brave . . .

This year the seniors have suffered the loss of many of their classmates who have gone forth to serve our country. We feel this loss very keenly for they were an active part of our lives at East High School and we pray that the time will not be long before they will be able to return.

It is to these boys and to the standards which they have set that we dedicate our yearbook.*

Flourish the Trumpets . . .

We've been told that seniors never really appreciate their school days until they have had time to reminisce in later years. We won't have to wait until after we've been graduated to realize and appreciate what Mrs. Toolan, as one of our advisors, has done for the Class of 1945. Long after the memories of teachers and school chums have faded, we'll still remember the cheerful personality of the woman who urged us on to success with her calm, though ambitious, nature.

It is difficult for us to express our gratitude for all the many kindnesses of Mr. Clark. His ready smiles and quiet understanding have helped us overcome innumerable problems—some small and some not so small—but all made easier to cope with because of his untiring efforts. He has been an able advisor as well as a staunch friend to all the seniors.

Mrs. Toolan and Mr. Clark, we, the Class of 1945, wish we could thank you adequately for your faithful guidance. Without your expert assistance many of our undertakings would not have been the successes they were. No one will ever take your place in our hearts.

The Principal's Message . . .

MR. WILLIAM C. WOLGAST

Greetings to the Class of 1945:

We congratulate you on the successful completion of your high school course and we extend our best wishes to you in your future plans.

You entered high school in September, 1941, and in December the treachery of Pearl Harbor occurred. Following that came the feverish preparation of this country to produce munitions and the organization of a large fighting force. The results of those efforts are apparent in our war effort to an astounding degree. During your high school course much of your thought and energy have gone to aiding this undertaking. That you have persevered in your high school course when for nearly four years the nation has been busy with a global war is deserving of high praise.

The war is not yet ended but our hopes are high for its termination in the near future. Many members of your class have already entered the armed services and others will be entering after graduation. To them we are grateful beyond words for the part they are taking in this catastrophe of our times. We begin to look forward to a time of peace that will be worthy of the sacrifices that have been made. We hope and pray that our thoughts and actions then will match those shown in the prosecution of the war, and that a genuine desire to bring about greater democracy for all peoples will really follow. To lessen race prejudice, to bring about more tolerance, to gain greater economic security for all people, to achieve the blessings of freedom—to help bring about these conditions of peace is my charge to the Class of 1945.

Do You Remember When . . .

The first day of high school when we trembled at the thought of not making good at the annex; our search for new classrooms, and the new faces; the strange teachers, and the homework—remember? Life was quite a whirl at first, but we adjusted ourselves without too much difficulty and settled down with determination to make a name for ourselves in East High School.

Then, remember how we looked forward to becoming a part of the main building, and how we timidly dreaded leaving our familiarity with the annex to enter the portals of a strange building? We felt very insignificant at first; but after we had become accustomed to our new surroundings, we began to like the place a little. The choosing of our advisors and the election of class officers really made us a part of this new life.

As juniors, we, upperclassmen became more active in extracurricular affairs. We had parties and dances, and plans were under way even then for our senior year. Long before June of that year we were able to exhibit proudly our class rings and pins.

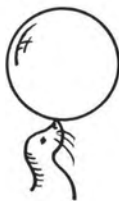

When we suddenly discovered that we were already seniors, we didn't feel so different. Yet we began to realize how short our stay at East High had seemed and how rapidly the remaining months would pass. Every moment of pleasure was precious, and we treasured the memories of the dances and the plays and the fun.

Graduation was like a dream. It was almost impossible to believe that the gates of our little world were closing behind us, pushing us into a greater world beyond. We can't express what these four wonderful years have meant to us, but we shall forever hold the tender memories of those carefree days locked tightly in our hearts.

Prophecy of '45...

Once upon a midnight bleary, while he wondered, sad and weary,
O'er what the Fates were to contrive for East High's Class of '45—
While he nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping,
As of some one gently rapping at Bruce Thompson's chamber door,
"It's some visitor," he muttered, "tapping at my chamber door—
Perhaps from him I'll learn some more."

Open here he flung the shutter, when, with many a lisp and stutter,
In there stepped Gerard J. Guli of the Senior Class of yore.
"Hi ya, Bruce." His greeting given, by prophetic fury driven,
As though by some strange sign, he read what was on Bruce's mind.
"B. T.," he said, his voice a whisper, "here's what you are looking for,
A crystal ball, with magic seal, that on request will all reveal—
All there is to know and more, about our Senior Class of yore."

Deep into that crystal gaping—from the silence no escaping;
Then, before their startled vision, the years unveiled their dire decision.
And as they stood in silent stare, this is what they did declare . . .

As hostess to society
Of New York's Club 21
Jane Nelson's mirth and sparkling wit
Is the talk of everyone.

The Metropolitan Opera House
Was packed to the last seat
When Louise Cannioto made "La Boheme"
Such a delightful treat.

As hostess aboard an airplane
Miss Cranmer is quite a chick
If Bromo-Seltzer doesn't work
Her smile does the trick.

That politician Decker
Who ran East's S. G. A.
Became a national figure
And head of the U. S. A.

On fashionable 5th Avenue
Phyllis Zimmerman has a shop
Where you can buy for a few dollars
A toupee for mom or pop.

When East High's tough DiClemente
Shall no longer teach us gym
Smiling Tommy Henkel
Will be there in place of him.

Peg Kilmer owns a Texas ranch
Where she entertains her kin
It's the biggest in the country
And called the "Don't Fence Me Inn."

"Nast's Rocket Test Successful"
Screamed the headlines of the Times
Dave creates a big sensation
With each new thing he designs.

As the nation's top authority
In every field of sport
Hy Korpeck is the man to ask
About games of every sort.

Patriotic Melly Wheeler
Decided to join the Spars
And twenty years thereafter
Was an Admiral with four stars.

Known throughout the country
For their skill and decent rates
Are Surgeon Robert Heyer
And Doctor David States.

The happiest perhaps of all
Is Robert Fullenweider
Who settled down in Lonesome Creek
To manufacture cider.

Governor Royce of New York State
Was recently selected
To head a council of diplomats
(He was unanimously elected.)

Composer-pianist Perry Thew
Increased his acclamation
When his latest work, "Concerto in E,"
Was praised throughout the nation.

Pat Johnson really sets the style
While modeling for New York's best.
She not only shows 'em what to wear
But also gives their eyes a rest.

At United Nations confabs
The outlook was quite barren,
'Til suddenly who rescued we
But W. K. Heron.

Rivalling both the Curies
In getting themselves a name
We find that Frank and Helen
Have made scientific fame.

As bass player for Koussevitsky
Bruce Thompson gained attention
And after serving thirty years
He retired on a pension.

On Broadway we may see in lights
The name of a play, "The Rook,"
Which has been 'specially adapted
From Marg Betz's newest book.

Harvard's Department of Botany

Has all the reviewers praisin',
Combining plenty of feminine charm
With talent that's amazin'.

For financial consultation
On every big affair
Big Business men see Gordy Brown,
"Worm's" now a millionaire.

Sue Green is up for Senator
(Just in the spirit of fun)
To keep things going lively
Way down in Washington.

Drummer Charlie Matthews
(And what a drummer is he)
Set up a band in Rio
For the Good Neighbor Policy.

Phyl Kroemer's commentaries
Are the best thing on the air.
She helps guide our nation's policy
On every foreign affair.

Twixt Hollywood and Broadway
Gerry Guli's having fits
'Cause what's a fella going to do
When all of his plays are hits.

"Murray Dwyer—Commercial Artist"
Reads the first line above the door.
The second says "Attorney James
Braunschweig—Offices 13th floor."

"The Nation's Best Dressed Gentleman,"
Thus ran the title given
To that groovy guy, Phil Nangreave,
A gift to the gals from heaven.

September Cabinet . . .

Mr. McKie, Betz, Carpenter, Ventura, Youngman, Vanden Heuvel, Heron, LeRoy, Connal, MacNally, Prince, Decker, Nast, Kilmer, LaCagnina.

The duties of the Cabinet, comprising the officers of the S. G. A. and committee chairmen, are to form a calendar of meetings, clear dates for various student activities, and raise money for the student body. For these purposes they meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month under the guidance of Mr. Donald J. McKie.

The Annex House of Delegates, part of the S. G. A., is the law-making body for student activities at the Annex. Each year the Annex elects a vice-president who presides over the House of Delegates, and who represents the Annex in affairs in Congress and in Cabinet meetings at the main building.

This year the S. G. A. Court, organized under the guidance of Mr. Redding to settle not only cases between the S. G. A. and individuals but also to interpret the laws of the constitution, took a liberal stand on its constitutional cases. With Louis Jardine as judge, assisted by a competent staff, the court feels that it has succeeded in its purpose.

Under the chairmanship of Eleanor MacNally, the 1944-45 War Stamp Committee has upheld East High's 90 per cent participation in the purchase of war stamps every month. Because of their untiring efforts the 5th war loan drive not only reached its quota but even doubled it.

Under its chairmen, Virginia Davidson and Gerard Guli, the Red Cross has done outstanding work this year. Besides collecting membership dues for the Junior Red Cross and money for the War Fund of the American Red Cross, it has willingly taken on any emergency work that has been suggested.

The fundamental purpose of Teen Canteen is to provide wholesome recreation every Saturday night for its members. Its Board of Management plans and directs dances and other events which take place every week at the Central "Y."

Organized for the primary purpose of creating friendship among girls and providing healthy recreation, Epsilon Tri-Y is a social as well as a service club. During the year it has sponsored various dances, splash parties, and discussions. Under the leadership of Louise Greco, president, it has successfully carried out many service projects.

The major purpose of the Science Club this year has been to serve the interests of as many students as possible. Once each month an all-day hike is planned to some quite distant woodland retreat. These hikes are attended by many who aren't members, but who enjoy hiking and the out-of-doors. All indoor meetings have been informative and interesting. One popular project is the maintaining of a science bulletin board in the main hall so that all students may become acquainted with the many sciences featured there.

Said to be one of the most colorful of our clubs, the Modern Language Club is comprised of the French, German, Spanish, and Italian clubs, which separately sponsor activities, promote achievement in each language, and work collectively on school activities of wide importance as well.

The members of the Renaissance Club are either students interested in Italian culture, students who study Italian, or students of Italian extraction. They study Italian music, science, literature, and community life. A yearly dance is sponsored by the club to raise funds to provide a scholarship for a worthy student.

A light comedy depicting the troubles and complications of teenage youth, "Ever Since Eve," written by Florence Ryorson and Colin Clements, was presented by the senior class, February 15th and 16th. The excellent portrayals of "Susan" and "Johnny" by Nancy Lou DeLario and Gerard Guli, combined with the effectiveness of the supporting cast, as well as the many hours of rehearsal and the fine directorship of Mr. Edwin Dolan, rendered the play a mirthful success.

Three Cheers . . .

Essom, S. Gosch, Vogler, Dunn,
Root, Anderson, Senewald, Connal.

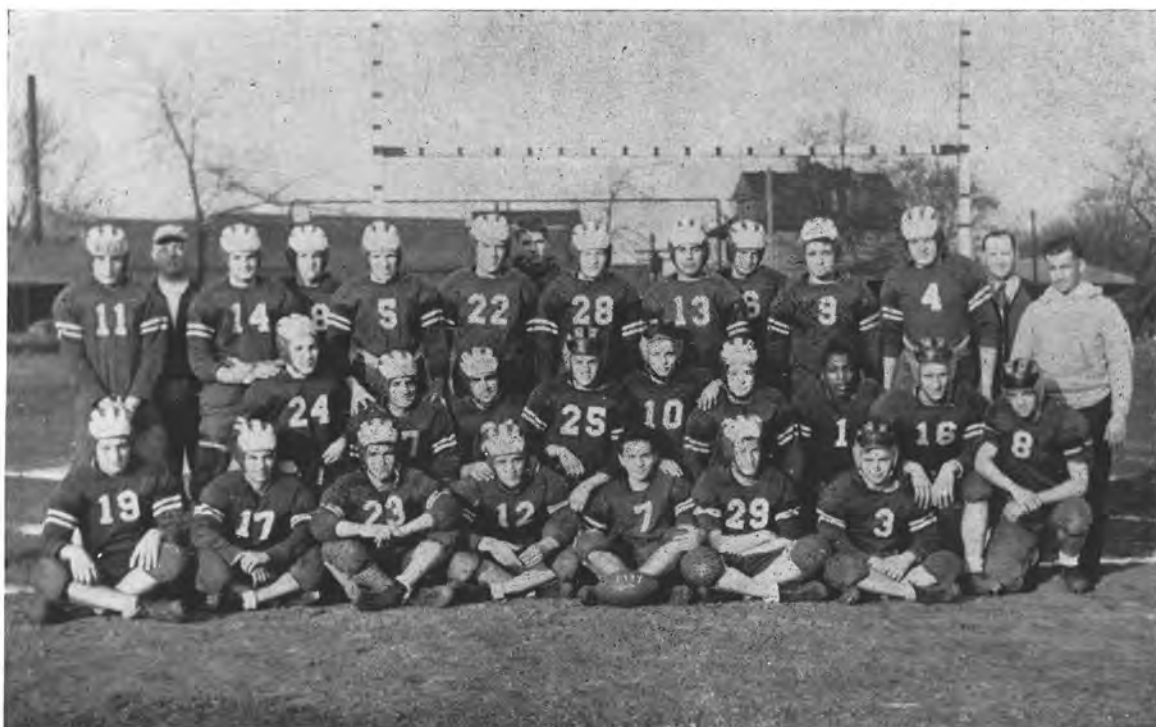

Stressing form and teamwork, the cheering squad, under the chairmanship of Joanne Connal and Nancy Root for the '44 and '45 seasons, has proved skillful and faithful in keeping up the morale of our teams and cheering them on to victory.

The Majorettes have appeared at football games and patriotic parades. Under the supervision of Mr. Haskell, with routines managed by Helen Pease and Donna Cranmer, their colorful performances have added pep and variety to many school functions.

A Group of Troupers . . .

Although handicapped by ineligibility, the football team gave a good account of itself on most occasions. Starting off with wins over Franklin and East Rochester, the McKaymen looked like champions, but then luck went against them. The East Rochester game was the first football game played between a city and a county high school. Pete Burnett, Don Sanders, and George Wahl were outstanding players for the Orientals.

Meet the Champs . . .

Coming through for the third straight year, Coach Henry Di Clemente's Cross Country team took the City and Sectional crowns easily. In one meet the Orientals captured the first five positions, a most difficult feat. The boys running the Sectionals were Captain Jim Decker, Bob Crandall, Lee Peers, Bruce DeBrine, Art Teamerson, Louis DePew, and Bruce Thompson.

The Reserves also won their championship and gained complete control over the first five places in three meets. In the City Championship Reserve Meet, Deke's boys, led by Ray Spinell, took the first six spots.

MR. FRANK ARIOLI, Coach

By winning half of their sixteen league games, the East basketball team finished in the fourth spot of the Interscholastic Loop. Coached by Mr. Frank Arioli, the undersized Orients outfought, outpassed, and outscored many taller opponents.

Ronald Kraftschik and Julian Legumsky gained second and third team All-Scholastic ratings, respectively, while Don Youngman received honorable mention.

The reserves also had a successful season in winning a good share of its games.

Callon, Maile, Mr. Arioli, Slitzer, Mack, Captain; Angeloff, LoFurno, Birgandi, Taylor, LaMartino.

Between the Goal Posts . . .

McDonough, Clark, Mancini, Royce, King, Korpeck, Stern.

Anderson, Taylor, Silveri, Schuber, Callon, Ciulla, Mr. Arioli.

Wigmore, Robt. Travis, Legumsky, Youngman, R. Travis, Pritchard.

Under the guidance of their new coach, Mr. Frank Arioli, the 1944 soccer team exhibited an amazing amount of fight and spirit, especially towards the end of the season. Captain Don Youngman, Bill Royce, Hiram Korpeck, Bill Mancini, Ronnie Schuber, and Larry Callon played well for the pitchmen.

The tennis team started its season May first, competing with other schools in the Interscholastic League. With Frank Tomdale the only veteran, the team hopes to complete a successful season under the guidance of Mr. Robert Torrens.

Youmans, Webster, Prince, Scheutzow, Silveri, Tomdale.

Henkel, Wedel, Mancuso,
Hill, Pecorella, Warren.

Led by veterans Dick Van Auker, Bob Carpenter, Ronald Schuber, and Harry Stathe, the East High baseball team opened their new season on May 2. Coach McKay has put his hopes in a group of promising young rookies who played well in spring practice.

The track team started off on May 3, under the able tutelage of Coach Henry DiClemente. With the return of ten veterans, the team has been looking forward to a very successful season.

The East High swimming team got off to a delayed start, but managed to compete in three meets. The Orient natators tied Madison but dropped decisions to Monroe and West. Fritz Dasson came through undefeated in the diving events. In the Sectionals Art Teamerson gained a third place in the 100-yard free-style event while the relay team took the fourth spot in their race. The Purple and Whites were coached by Frank Smith.

Coming in 5th in the bowling league, East High's Keglers completed a year of not too many victories but of much good sport, under the leadership of Mr. Torrens.
